

Lesson 36

We'll be in touch

Future will

We will be there next month. – Będziemy tam w przyszłym miesiącu.
I will not work here next year. – Nie będę tu pracował w przyszłym roku.

trade fair	product	interested	stand
targi handlowe	produkt	zainteresowany	stoisko

next week	next month	next Friday
w przyszłym tygodniu	w przyszłym miesiącu	w przyszły piątek

36.01► Alan is calling his client Hello, Mr. Santos. How are you? Are you going to the trade fair next Friday? That's great. We will be there, too. Please, visit our stand. We will show you our new products. I think you will be interested. Of course, we will visit your stand, too. Nice talking to you. We will be in touch. I will call you next week. We will have time to talk more at the trade fair.

Where will Alan be next Friday? He will be at the trade fair.

Will Mr. Santos be there, too? _____

What will Alan show Mr. Santos? _____

Will Alan call Mr. Santos next week? _____

Will you come to class next week? Yes, I will come to class next week.

Will you have more time next month? Yes, I will...

Will you study English next year? _____

There is /there are – countable and uncountable nouns singular countables: a/an plural countables: some/any an orange – some oranges

a car – some cars

uncountables: some/any

some fruit, some cheese, some rice, some water, some butter, some soup

fresh	sausage	pepper	grapefruit	soup
świeży, surowy	kielbasa	papryka	grejfrut	zupa

36.02► In my refrigerator there isn't any butter, but there's some cheese. There are some carrots, but there aren't any tomatoes. There isn't any ham, but there is some chicken. There isn't any juice, but there's some Coke. / "Do we have any food?" "Let me look. There's some pasta from yesterday. There are some sausages and there's some salami. There is some fresh meat, too. But there aren't any eggs." "Is there any fruit?" "There is an orange, and there are two grapefruits and some bananas.” “Are there any vegetables?” “There are a few carrots. There are some red peppers, too.”

Answer with there is some/there isn't any/ there are some/ there aren't any.

- | | |
|--|---|
| Are there any sausages in your refrigerator? | There are some. /There aren't any. |
| Is there any meat/Coke/fruit? | There is some. /There isn't any. |
| Are there any lemons in your refrigerator? | There are some. /There aren't any. |
| Is there any cheese/chicken/pasta? | There is some. /There isn't any. |
| Are there any tomatoes/red peppers/vegetables? | Yes, there are some. /No, there aren't any. |
| Is there any milk/butter/jam? | Yes, there is some. /No, there isn't any. |

SPEAKING

What's in your refrigerator? There are some lemons, there is some Coke...

36.03 ► CONVERSATION

mushroom – grzyb olive – oliwka speak up – mówić głośniej
it's busy – jest duży ruch

- clerk: Prime Pizza. How can I help you?
customer: I would like to order a pizza, please.
clerk: Okay. What pizza would you like to order?
customer: The one without meat: with mozzarella cheese and some vegetables.
clerk: You mean Vegetarian Pizza?
customer: That's the one. What's on it exactly?
clerk: Mozzarella, black olives, mushrooms, tomatoes and green peppers.
customer: Sounds good. I would like the medium size, please.
clerk: Okay, so it's one medium Vegetarian. Can I have your address, please?
customer: It's number ten, Washington Street.
clerk: Excuse, me? It's really busy here. Can you speak up, please?
customer: My address is ten, Washington Street.
clerk: Thank you.
customer: How long will that be?
clerk: We're very busy. It will be about 45 minutes.

another – jeszcze jeden, inny

Używaj another przed rzeczownikami policzalnymi w liczbie pojedynczej.

diet	piece	across	candy
odżywianie	kawałek	naprzeciwko	słodycze

36.04 ► Miguel, a college student I'm at school. It's another day in college. I'm having a lunch break now, but I will have another class at two o'clock. I have some time—enough to go to the shopping mall across the street. I need to buy some jeans. Yes, I will go there. But first I have to finish my lunch. I will eat another piece of pizza. Or maybe not. One is enough. Gosh, I'm fat. I have to change my diet. I can't eat candy every day. All my jeans are too small.

Correct Miguel's words.

I will have another class at one o'clock.

I don't have any time. _____

I need to buy some sunglasses. I need to buy some jeans.

I will eat another piece of cake. _____

I have to change my life. I have to change my diet.

I can't eat cookies every day. _____

All my jeans are too large. All my jeans are too small.

Object pronouns: it/them

Diane, I'm going to watch a movie. Do you want to watch it, too? /I need my flash drive. Can you help me look for it? /My pants are all dirty. Look at them. Can you wash them together with my other clothes, please? Put them in the washing machine. /These sunglasses are too small for me. I can't wear them. I don't think I need them. Do you want them? They're new. /I have some good music in my car. Would you like to listen to it? /I would like another piece of that cake. Can I have some?

Look at that picture. Can you look at it? Yes, I can look at it.

Where are my sunglasses? Do you have them? No, I don't have them.

I have a good movie. Do you want to watch it? No, I don't want to watch it.

I have dirty pants. Can you wash them for me? No, I can't wash them for you.

I have a big mess on my desk. Can you help me clean it? _____

I have a few new texts. Can I read them now? _____

I don't have your number. Can you give it to me, please? _____

if – czy

have no idea – nie mieć pojęcia

What is this? Is it Samantha's blouse? Because I'm not sure if it's her top. I mean, it's not really her size. /I can check if the tickets are expensive. Give me my phone. /Who is that man? He always says hi, but I'm not sure if I know him. /Look at this. It's a new book by Emily Jenkins. Do you know if it's interesting? /Who's that old man in the photo? I'm sure he's an actor. I think he was quite popular when I was a child. But I'm not sure if he is a big star now. /I have no idea if these sausages are fresh. Try one.

Rephrase the sentences: add I'm not sure or I don't know at the beginning.

It's true. / I can draw it.	I don't know if I can draw it.
I know that woman. /The meat is fresh.	I'm not sure if I know...
You can take it. / They're your pants.	I don't know if you can take it.
It's possible. /That movie is interesting.	I'm not sure if it's possible.
He was famous. /He's right.	_____
I want another piece of cake. / These mushrooms are tasty.	_____
You can leave early. /It's a long journey.	_____

36.05 ► CONVERSATION

go away – wyjeżdżać attractions – atrakcje on the way – po drodze come back – wracać

Kate: Craig, I hear you're going away this weekend. Is that right?
Craig: Yes, I'm going to take my family to Niagara Falls.
Kate: Cool. How are you going to get there?
Craig: By car. It's not far—only 240 miles from my city.
Kate: How long is the journey?
Craig: About four hours. Check with Google Maps.
Kate: Four hours? It's not so bad. What time are you going to leave home?
Craig: We're leaving early in the morning, about seven o'clock I think.
Kate: Um... so you will be there around eleven?
Craig: I'm not sure if we can make it in four hours. We will stop on the way. We have small children; you know what it's like.
Kate: Right. Are you coming back on the same day?
Craig: We are. One day is enough to see all the attractions.
Kate: Really? Hmm... I'm not sure if that's possible.